

Soul & Physiology: The Healing Power of Stories with Nancy Mellon

How do we build resilience in these challenging times? Discover storytelling structures that correspond with specific energy patterns and organic processes in the human body and soul.

Learn how to experiment with the healing power of stories to support personal, family and community resilience.

In this introductory workshop, we will deepen trust in imaginative vision, intuition and your capacity to meet challenges with spirited and creative courage. Whatever your walk of life, you will benefit from learning organic story wisdom that strengthens well-being.

Saturday, February 23, 6 - 9 pm

Kelly Barn, 1360 Sumac Street, Boulder CO

$75 ($80 at the door) Register now with nancy@healingstory.com

Pay by Paypal or send a check to Nancy Mellon, 3046 11th Street, Boulder 80304-2526

Nancy Mellon is a counselor, mentor, and former Waldorf teacher whose courses and workshops brim with creativity! Nancy has taught therapeutic writing and storytelling world-wide for many years. She is living now in Boulder CO. Her newest book (available soon!) encourages practical wisdom amidst rushing screens and robotics. To read about her inspirational books and to listen to several podcasts go to www. healingstory.com.

Nancy's books will be available for purchase and signing at the workshop!

