

Celebrate Earth Day with Nancy Mellon

SUMMER STORYTELLING: How to tell spontaneous stories guided by Mother Nature

... love every leaf; love each separate thing. Fyodor Dostoyevsky

- a workshop to enhance your family's relationship with the natural world
- simple strategies for telling age-appropriate impromptu stories to nourish children of different temperaments, ages 3- 10, and to enliven tired, stressed parents, grandparents (and other caretakers)
- learn how to use simple props and to create a story basket full of the wonder and the magic of the ordinary

Learn how a three minute story can become immeasurable gift and talisman!
You will leave this workshop with abundant inspiration and new tools for connecting with yourself, the children and the natural world.

Saturday, April 28

9:30 am -12:30 pm

1114 Pico Ave., Pacific Grove, CA 93950

$45 per person includes coffee, tea and nibbles

My books at discount for you!

To register: nancy@healingstory.com With questions or pricing options, please telephone Nancy at 831-373-3349. Space is limited, register soon!

Nancy Mellon leads workshops and courses world-wide that brim with creativity. She is a counselor and visionary author whose books are treasured in many countries. A former Waldorf teacher, she inspires people from all walks of life to address their daily challenges creatively. To learn more, please visit www.healingstory.com

and read her books: Storytelling and the Art of Imagination, Storytelling with Children, The Knottles, and Body Eloquence, which won the US Books" Best Books 2008 Award in the field of Alternative Medicine.

