

Healing Story: The Gift of Imagination

Gather story medicine for the holiday season! Hear inspirational anecdotes from Nancy Mellon, and experience for yourself how storytelling activities support well-being. Whether or not we consider ourselves to be artistic, creative expression invites organic healing. By the end of this workshop you will have received a gift of healing story for yourself, and learned how to create healing story for yourself and others.

*Nancy Mellon leads workshops and courses world-wide that brim with creativity. She is a long-time counselor and visionary author whose books are treasured in many countries. To learn more, visit www.healingstory.com. Her book Body Eloquence won the 2010 USBook Best book award in the field of Alternative Medicine. Copies will be available at the workshop. To book individual sessions, go to her website healingstory.com or telephone 831-373-3349.*
